Ernest F. Oriente and Judy Feld are virtual partners in Coaching Success TeleForums™, the first example of their trademarked SmartMatch Alliances. They work with their clients by telephone and E-mail, specializing in global distance learning, serving groups of executives, professionals and individuals who are geographically dispersed. They have appeared more than 3,000 times in business and trade publications and their free Coaching Success Newsletter has subscribers in 70 countries [subscribe at www.coachingsuccess.com/newsletter] They have been interviewed in a wide variety of leading magazines and newspapers, including The New York Times, Fast Company, The LA Times, Fortune, BusinessWeek, Self Employed America, Financial Times, and Working Woman.

Judy Feld launched her coaching business in 1995, after twenty years of corporate experience in technical, marketing, management and executive roles. In her private coaching Judy serves managers, business owners and professional people, including career changers, CIOs and other technology leaders, and executive women. As a former vice-president of a major airline company, Judy leverages her corporate experience with her clients, which include Fortune 500 companies, nonprofits, and entrepreneurial businesses. Judy is a Master Certified Coach, a Certified Mentor Coach, a 1993 graduate of Leadership America, and president of a 6,000-member professional organization. She is also a keynote speaker for corporate and organization conferences and training programs.

Ernest F. Oriente, a business coach since 1995, has a passion for coaching his clients on executive leadership, hiring and motivating SuperStars, traditional and Internet marketing, competitive sales strategies, and high-leverage alliances for fast growing sales companies and entrepreneurial businesses. He provides private and group coaching, recruiting services and powerful assessment tools for hiring SuperStars and building dynamic teams. Corporate clients include apartment property management companies and multi-housing industry vendors, corporate housing and apartment locator services, and publishing companies and their advertising sales teams.
